The Reflector.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1889.

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

No old seeds at Shockey & Snider's. Their stock of garden and field seeds is unsurpassed in Kansas for quality and variety.

Revival services continue at the Lutheran church. Mr. Porch is having excellent success and large audiences are present each evening.

You cannot afford to use bad garden or field seeds. If you buy of Shockey & Snider you will get the best quality.

W. T. Davidson rejoiceth over the arrival of a bouncing boy at his home last night. Tom is congratulated on all hands and gives out the cigars liberally.

Shockey & Snider are leaders in garden seeds. Their stock is new and of the first quality.

We learn that C. H. Lowrie has resigned his position as principal of the Detroit school on account of some irregularities and is now sojourning in Denver, awaiting a clearing in the atmosphere.

Before you buy your garden seeds call at Shockey & Snider's. They can show you an immense variety of the newest varieties and of the choicest quality.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance of the Lizzie May Ulmer Company at the Bonebrake next Monday night in the play of "Col. Mulberry Sellers." One of the treats of the season may be looked for.

William Thayer, of this city, has been appointed by the board of county commissioners as superintendent of the poor farm for the coming year at a salary of $500. Mr. Thayer will make an eminently capable superintendent and conduct the farm with ability.

Wm. Leshar, teacher in the West-Side School, was compelled to whip a boy named Clay Glachy yesterday. The parents swore out a warrant against Leshar for assault and battery. The case came up in Quinn's court at 4 p. m.—too late for a report this evening.

You will want field seeds—corn, oats, etc.—pretty soon. Shockey & Snider is headquarters for everything in this line. The seed they sell WILL GROW.

A Sad Errand.

Rev. E. P. Estep, the Methodist minister at Woodbine, was in the city a short time Tuesday evening. He was accompanying the remains of his 6-year-old daughter, who died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at the parsonage at Woodbine. The body was being taken to Wamego, his former home, for burial. The little one had but a short illness, typhoid malaria taking the young life. The broken-hearted father and the dead child left on the midnight Union Pacific for the last resting place of the deceased. Mrs. Estep accompanied them.

The First of the Season.

It is rather early for the snake story season to open but as the winter is unusually mild allowances should be made. The following is vouchered for by one of the leading citizens of the city:

Mr. A. Gross living in Cheever township while taking rocks out of an old well yesterday when he had dug down about four feet came upon a den of bull snakes. The serpents were of immense size and were rolled together in massive balls, evidently enjoying their winter hibernation. Over 60 snakes were counted in the den and were killed by the workmen.

JONES, THE BIGAMIST.

Wife, No. 1, Writes That She Will Be on Hand to Testify—A Peoria Paper's Story.

This morning Marshal Powell received from Mrs. Jones, wife No. 1 of the man who was arrested a month ago for bigamy, having married a Miss Rowe, of Solomon, when he already had a wife back East, a letter stating that since her return to Peoria, Ill., her home, she had been quite ill but was now better and would be here without fail to testify when the case of the State vs. Jones, alias Freeland, came up for trial. She said that she would bring with her her brother who was present at her marriage with Jones and other witnesses if necessary.

She wished to know if the recreant husband was still in jail or out on bail. Mr. Powell replied that the man was safely ensconced behind the bars and she need have no fears regarding his appearance before the bar of justice.

The following from the Peoria (Ill.) Journal of a recent date goes to show that the case against the prisoner is a strong one and is likely to be still further strengthened by the appearance of Eastern witnesses. If he is guilty as charged no punishment can be too severe for wrecking as he has done two innocent women's lives.

The Journal says: And now come substantiated accounts of a lively domestic ruction out in Abilene, Kansas. Abilene is a town that seems to have strange attractions for wandering Peorians. A goodly number of our people of all grades and classes of society have migrated thither and many who left this city headed in an entirely different direction have pulled up in Abilene.

Among the demons of the canebrake known here as "Doom" Jones, "Doom" flourished in Peoria several years ago and figured in society as a clever, respectable and good-hearted fellow. He is a full brother in the flesh to George Jones, the ex-government store-keeper, who went down to Arkansas a year or two ago and had such a fearful tussle with fever and chills and demons of the canebrake. "Doom" Jones married a Miss Wasson of this city, a highly respectable girl, and finally drifted away from the town. The family went out West to better themselves and grow rich with the country, and remained absent until some little time ago, when Mrs. Jones returned alone. The lady settled among old friends here and told things had not prospered with herself and husband as they anticipated. They had been bitterly disappointed in many ways, but in place of giving up the ship "Doom" determined to start out alone and forage around until he struck something permanent and profitable. And so he sent his wife home to Peoria, promising to write and furnish her with means from time to time as fortune blessed his efforts. The program was that as soon as the husband managed to get a good foothold his wife was to rejoin him. He did not want to expose her to the vicissitudes of a roving life and his wife never suspected for a moment that her liege lord had any sinister motive in furnishing her means to revisit her old home. And so she came back with a light heart and waited for letters which never reached her. She wrote repeatedly to her husband, but the promised remittances never came, and at last a horrible suspicion was born and grew in the deserted wife's mind. She was greatly distressed and finally applied to Mayor Warner and the chief of police for relief. Now Chief Gorman is worldly minded and takes a practical view of life. He listened to the lady's recital and made up his mind at once that there must surely be another woman in the distressing case. He went to work on this theory and finally found that one J. W. Freeland had married and settled down in Abilene, Kansas. Freeland did not claim to be Jones by a large majority, but on tracing the wanderings of the faithless Peorian the chief came to the solemn conclusion that he had struck his man under an alias. The description of Freeland fitted Jones to a hair, and after due deliberation Mrs. Jones was placed in possession of all the proofs obtainable of her husband's perfidy. Considerable correspondence passed between the authorities here and those of Abilene, the final outcome being that the identity of the amorous Jones was established to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. The authorities say there is no doubt of the fact that it is a clear case of simon pure bigamy.

A PLEASANT RECEPTION.

The Greeting to the New Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. E. D. Walker.

The elegant home of Mayor A. W. Rice on West Third street was last evening a scene of pleasure and enjoyment, the occasion being the reception tendered the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. E. D. Walker.

The affair was arranged by the ladies of the church and was a most happy introduction of the new pastor to his flock.

The reception committee which greeted and introduced to Mr. Walker the hundred or more guests was: Mayor and Mrs. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Worley, Dr. and Mrs. Hewett, Mrs. P. J. Stoddard, Mrs. E. F. Parent and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bonebrake. The evening was spent in conversation and social enjoyments. A delightful feature was the rendering of an excellent musical program, each number of which was given with exquisite taste and expression. During the evening elegant refreshments were served and done ample justice to by all present.

Among the guests present were: Gentlemen with their wives: M. H. Hewett, H. Land Southworth, Walter G. Cowles, Geo. Merrill, W. S. Hodge, Geo. Ogden, Dr. Austin, G. F. Worley, F. L. Parker, W. J. Winfield, W. P. Seeds, H. E. Seeds, E. B. Seeds, A. J. Bingham, A. K. Perry, A. S. Sherwood, R. F. Russell, Hugh Hammond, A. Mead, T. H. Wallace, W. H. Anderson, C. S. Crawford, Richard Waring.

Mesdames: Joe White, Shelton, Perring, Parent, Geo. Arnold, Whitlaw, Davis, Kepner, De Lap, McCollam, C. W. Ball, Simmers, White, Phillips, West, Stoddard, Graves, Downey, J. E. Bonebrake.

Messrs.: B. W. Hewett, A. Lightner, John Ross, C. C. Wyandt, W. G. Wyandt, Clarence Wendell, Rev. Christian, Rev. Stauffer, Howard Bonebrake, Willie and Frank Quinn, Charlie Howland, Leslie Perring, Frank Bonebrake, Rev. Porch, Rev. Zimmerman, R. M. White. Misses: Wyandt, Upshaw, Barker, Malott, Lewis, Ramsey, Lizzie Wilder, Kate Wilder, Anna Wilder, Nina and Birdie Hodge, Davis, Bonebrake, Minnie, Maggie and Bessie Knox, Nettie McCoy, Edgington, Anna Berry, Brakefield, Carpenter, Thompson, Hattie and Maggie Rainey, Pearl Taylor, George and Maud Jenken, Hattie and Ida Sherwood, Jacoby, Patterson, Howe, Merrill, Mamie and Frankie Downey.

Teachers' Examination.

The quarterly examination for applicants for teachers' certificates was held at the central school building Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock. The examination was conducted by Supt. Ford and Messrs. Cook and Jewett. The number of applicants was smaller than usual, only five presenting themselves. They were: Miss Emma Harrington, D. A. Holmes, Miss Lizzie Bonell, Mrs. M. L. White, all of Abilene; Miss Anna Sandborn, Chapman.

A Painful Accident.

Wednesday, Mr. Hewett, father of Dr. M. H. Hewett, living in West Abilene suffered a severe accident. He had let a horse and cow out together in a little yard in the rear of the barn and upon his entering the enclosure and hearing the animals he was kicked in the knee by the cow. The knee joint was crushed and the old gentleman will doubtless have a severe seige of it. As he is over 70 years of age the accident is doubly hard on him.

Remodeling the Bank.

Abilene's long-time banker, Thos. Kirby, has become weary of the sameness of his bank room and today set the carpenters at work remodeling it. The back partitions are to be taken out, the vault moved to the rear of the building, plate glass windows, new counters and desks put in and the whole thing so elegantly refitted that the man who has $1.73 on deposit and goes in to draw it out will think he is a millionaire.

Commissioners' Proceedings.

Peter Snider, of Newbern township, appeared before the board on January 12th and stated that he bought a span of mules on time and afterward borrowed $300 to pay for same. In the meantime the assessor came around and assessed both. On this statement the county commissioners ordered the assessment of the $300 stricken off. It afterward appeared to the board that the statements made on January 12th by Mr. Snider were not true and they reconsidered their former action, which leaves the assessment against Mr. Snider same as the assessor made it.

It appearing to the board that part of the N. 1/2 of N. E. 1/4 of Sec. 21, 13, 3 E. was doubly assessed in 1881, and sold for the taxes of that year and a tax deed made for the same. On motion the board ordered that the county treasurer refund to Jontz Bros. & Rice, the holders of said tax deed, the amount due on same, viz: $137.44.

The board Tuesday visited the poor farm and also inspected the Enterprise bridge, finding the former in first-class shape and being well pleased with the work on the latter.

Wednesday the board visited Talmage and located a bridge to be built across Mud creek at that place.

A Literary Organization.

Last evening at 7:30 in Grace Reformed church this city, the organization of the N. P. M. & L. Union was completed and an interesting program rendered to the satisfaction of all present. The Union now has an enrolled membership of 16. The officers elected for the first quarter are: President, Miss Maggie Betz; vice president, Miss Lizzie Asper; secretary, Miss Minnie Shiveley; treasurer, Miss Ella Wahl; critic, Ed Shadinger; organist, Miss Mary Young; assistant organist, Miss Callie Reams; editor of the N. P. U., Ed Shadinger. The executive committee consists of the officers and Miss Sue Hoon, with Rev. T. F. Stauffer ex-officio chairman. The Union is divided into literary and industrial departments meeting alternately. The primal object of the Union is in behalf of the cause of missions and general church work. The secondary object is the literary benefit of the membership. The organization at the very beginning shows a good degree of interest and deserves great success. The second meeting of the Union will be held at the residence of Rev. Stauffer, West 5th street, February 11th, at 7:30 p. m.

MOORE DISAPPEARS.

The Connecticut Mutual Man Supposed to Be in Canada—Ho Swindles

Emma Abbott, the Prima Donna—Assassination of John Clayton, Brother of Powell Clayton.

The Brother of Rebecca Skillman Kills James M. Williams—Woman Attacked By Strikers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 30.—Joseph A. Moore, the half million dollar embezzler from the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, has quietly left for parts unknown. The exact time of his departure is probably known only to one or two of his closest friends and relatives, and his attorney, Barrett, admitted that he had gone to Canada. Barrett would not tell when he left, but it is pretty certain he was in the city Sunday and got away some time Monday. He has had ample time to reach the Canadian line, but his friends here profess not to know what point in Canada he made for. No warrant for his arrest had been sworn out nor had any step been taken, that the public is aware of, looking to such a move. The amount of the shortage has not been increased above the original figures.

Moore owed a good many small store debts ranging from $10 to $100, but not one of these debts remains unpaid. Last Saturday a lady relative of Moore's went several of the larger stores and calling for his account paid the cash, and yesterday a woman unknown at the several stores went around and paid the remaining bills.

It has been discovered that when the late Eugene Wetherill, the husband of Emma Abbott, bought a business block here last year he paid $20,000 in cash for it. The Connecticut Mutual held a mortgage of $25,000 on the property, which Wetherill paid to Moore out of the purchase money and obtained a valid release from the company, but it seems Moore never turned a dollar of the money over to the company and thus made a clear $25,000 from the prima donna's purchase.

JOHN CLAYTON ASSASSINATED. PLUMMERVILLE, Ark., Jan. 30.—John Clayton, brother of Powell Clayton and one of the most prominent Republicans in the Southwest, was assassinated last night at his boarding house here, just as he was about to retire. He ran against C. H. Breckinridge for Congress in the last election and contested the seat. There is great excitement over the murder. He lived at Pine Bluff. It is supposed the murderer grew out of politics. In Plummerville township the ballot box was stolen in the recent election and is supposed to have contained a majority for Clayton. He and Carroll Armstrong, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, have been there since Thursday last taking testimony in the contest.

SHOT THROUGH THE BRAIN. ALBION, Neb., Jan. 30.—James M. Williams was shot and killed by Benjamin Skillman at 6:30 o'clock last night. Skillman is the youngest brother of Rebecca Skillman, who recently charged Williams and Dr. Ferland in an Omaha court with abortion. As Williams was passing the Commercial Hotel, Skillman, who had been in hiding, sprang out with a pistol in his hand and fired, striking Williams in the left hip. A desperate struggle followed, during which Skillman fired again, the ball taking effect at the base of Williams' brain, killing him instantly. Skillman then fled and is still at large. A reward of $250 is offered for his capture.

INCREASED THE SENTENCE. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 30.—Ed Kelley, a desperate character on trial for highway robbery, consented to his attorney, John Furlong, to accept a ten year term in the penitentiary for his crimes, and Judge Normile was about to impose that sentence yesterday when Kelley for some unaccountable reason rose up from his seat and folded Furlong to the floor by a powerful blow over the left eye. Judge Normile not only imposed the ten year sentence but tried him later in the day on a charge which would have been passed generally but for his assault on Furlong of robbing a street car conductor, and made the sentence fifteen years.

ATTACKED BY STRIKERS. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A number of factory girls who had replaced the strikers at Higgin's carpet factory were attacked last night on their way home by a crowd of men leaving the works by hand and women and severely injured, some of them having most of their clothing torn off, and the men being hurt by bricks and other missiles. Several arrests were made.

Judge Christian Dead. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 30.—Judge John

Christman, a student of Clay County and Kansas City for the last forty years, died at his home, 1009 Grand avenue, yesterday morning of paralysis of the heart. He had been ill about four weeks. Judge Christman was sixty-three years of age. He was a native of Kentucky. He was county and probate judge from 1863-'67, and abandoned the active practice of his profession in 1873 in order to take personal charge of his property. He leaves one son, William, who lives at Liberty; two brothers, William Christman, a banker at Independence, and Joseph Christman, a banker at Stowartville, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. Dr. Mitchell of Liberty.

Rich Farmer Killed. PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 30.—Ira B. Tabor, a wealthy farmer residing near here, was killed last evening by a neighbor, Joseph Chaplen, as the result of a quarrel growing out of the poisoning of two of Chaplen's cows last August. Chaplen having accused Tabor of the deed. The men met on the highway and after some words Chaplen seized a stake from his sleigh and struck Tabor, killing him instantly. Chaplen gave himself up and is in jail. He claims to have acted in self defense. He is a poor man, while Tabor had large possessions. Chaplen formerly belonged to the Fifth United States artillery, which was stationed here five years.

PENITENTIARY INVESTIGATION.

Witnesses Examined Before the Committee at Leavenworth. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 30.—The much talked of investigation of the penitentiary commenced its session yesterday at ten a. m., at the Flinn House, all the members being present, as follows: Senators Harkness, Kelley (of Crawford County), and Price; Representatives Admira, Walrod, Rice, Elliott and Berry. L. C. Smith, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, the executive officer and Mr. Stewart is the stenographer. Attorney-General Kellogg acts as attorney for the State, and Captain J. B. Johnson represents the penitentiary directors. Upon assembling Senator F. B. Harkness was chosen chairman of the committee, when a short colloquy occurred as to who was the proper person to administer oaths to witnesses; it being determined that the chairman of the committee was the proper person, the much talked of investigation began by the introduction of a witness, Loper, of Atchison, as the first witness, nobody being allowed in the committee room except one witness at a time, and representatives of papers.

Loper denied the stories published in the Kansas City Times with which his name has been coupled.

D. J. Keller was the next witness, and he was followed by F. C. Buckley in corroboration of his statements of the truth of the Times' statements.

D. N. Barnes, the next witness called. He denied positively ever having signed any contract with Buckley, Loper and Krohn.

At the conclusion of Mr. Barnes' testimony the committee adjourned. WIFE BEATER WHIPPED. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 30.—Patrick O'Neal, employed at a livery stable, who lives at 55 Agnes street and has a wife and five children, yesterday got more drunk than usual and coming home in the evening drove his wife and children into the street unprotected from the cold and snow. Then he proceeded to demolish the furniture. About ten o'clock a crowd of men, numbering ten or fifteen, congregated in front of his house. The leader was either a woman or a man in woman's clothing. She had a bundle of whips and switches, which she distributed to the crowd. A rush was made into the house and O'Neal dragged out and given twenty-five lashes. When this was done the woman ordered that he be rolled in the snow and that was done. The crowd then left with the warning that if he abused his family again that he would be visited again and receive a double dose.

The Cleary Case. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—In the ex-Alderman Cleary bribery trial Judge Daniels asked the counsel for the defense if they had arrived at any conclusion with regard to a change of place for trial, when General Tracy stated that they had decided to apply for a change of venue and asked the judge if he would hear the motion. Hereupon the motion would have been made in special term of the Supreme Court and he believed Judge Patterson was presiding there at present. It was then agreed that they would adjourn the case.

A Lurid Speech. LONDON, Jan. 30.—Mr. Edward Stanhope, Secretary of State for War, in a speech last night said that a thunder storm was hanging over Europe and sooner or later, probably sooner, it would burst, bringing the fiercest and most horrible war ever known. The Fall Mail Gazette commenting on the speech declares that Mr. Stanhope's headlines rhetoric is quite unjustified and expresses the opinion that Lord Salisbury should take prompt measures to correct the damage done by the blunders of the Minister of War.

Cut a Swath. WATERBURY, Conn., Jan. 30.—Philip Kelley, aged twenty-one, of 273 Quincy street, Brooklyn, came here last week, represented himself as a jewelry salesman and cut a wide swath among fast women and livery stables. He was overladen yesterday near Stamford with a team and buggy for the State line with a team and buggy belonging to P. J. Norton, and will have to answer a charge of grand larceny.

A Family Mysteriously Poisoned. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Samuel Hazlett and his family were seized with symptoms of poisoning last night. A stomach pump placed at last but Samuel out of danger, but he is likely to die. No information as to the cause of the poisoning can be learned.
